Introduction

Collection title: Greatorex Photographs

Reference code: GB-0033-GTX

Dates of creation: [1890s]

Extent: approximately 1,560 prints

Repository: Durham University Library, Archives and Special Collections

Creator: Taken and collected by Edward Greatorex (approximately 1823-1900)

Language of material: English

Contents

A collection of architectural photographs, largely of churches, monastic buildings, and later structures on monastic sites, in the British Isles, formed and probably partly taken by Canon Edward Greatorex (ca.1823-1900).

Approximately 1,260 of the photographs relate to sites in England, 240 to Scotland, 32 to Ireland, 18 to Wales and 8 to the Isle of Man. Some are the work of commercial photographers, but a large proportion of those relating to buildings in England were probably taken privately, possibly by Greatorex himself. The prints vary in size from about 3 x 2 inch up to 12 x 10 inch. Many are albumen prints. From the dates of the gravestones visible in a number of them, they date from the later 19th century, and quite possibly the 1890s.

Biography

Edward Greatorex became a minor canon of Durham Cathedral in 1849, and held the offices of sacristan 1849-1862 and precentor 1862-1872, when he became rector of Croxdale, Co. Durham.

Accession details

Donation, source and date uncertain.

Arrangement

The photographs are mounted on sheets of board, and are grouped by country. The English section is arranged (broadly) by county. The numbering is by page (i.e. each side of each sheet of mounting board) and then item.

Conditions of access

Open for consultation.

Copyright and copying

Permission to make any published use of material from the collection must be sought in advance from the Head of Archives and Special Collections (e-mail PG.Library@durham.ac.uk) and, where appropriate, from the copyright owner. The Library will assist where possible with identifying copyright owners, but responsibility for ensuring copyright clearance rests with the user of the material
