Introduction

William Newman Papers

Reference code: GB-0298-LC/P9

1621-1632

Extent: 1 file

Repository: Ushaw College Library

Creator: Lisbon College

Language of material: Spanish and Portuguese

Contents

Papers of William Newman mostly during the period of his official employment as a chaplain in Lisbon, including faculty papers, notes and a letter to King Philip IV of Spain on the threat posed by the Dutch fishing fleet, and letters to the Inquisition on the suppression of controversial works and opinions.

About the creator

Rev William Newman (1577-1640) was the driving force behind the establishment of Lisbon College. Although he was never to become president, Newman founded the college from property entrusted by the estate of the late Nicholas Ashton, a Catholic chaplain in Lisbon.

Accession details

Lisbon College closed in 1973 and this collection, along with the rest of the Lisbon Archive and Library, was transferred to Ushaw College by Mgr James Sullivan in the following year.

Arrangement

The papers follow the original arrangement of the collection which is broadly chronological.

Conditions of access

Open for consultation.

Copyright and copying

Permission to make any published use of material from the collection must be sought in advance from the Lisbonian Society and, where appropriate, from the copyright owner. The Library will assist where possible with identifying copyright owners, but responsibility for ensuring copyright clearance rests with the user of the material
