Contents

Papers of John Walker, being mostly his correspondence with many notable nineteenth-century Catholics including Cardinal Nicholas Wiseman, Rev Mr Searle, Canon Tierney, Rev Thomas Law, Rev Mr Ward, Lord Northcote, T.W.M. Marshall, J.C. Wright, Charles Waterton, Samuel S. Byron, John Lingard, R. Walker, and others. The letters cover a wide range of subjects, including: John Henry Newman and Tractarianism; Lingard's final years; the publication of various Catholic polemical and historical books and pamphlets; the Catholic press, notably the Tablet and Rambler, anti-Catholicism, particularly the Papal Aggression (restoration of the hierarchy) and the campaign for Italian independence, as well as local controversies between Protestants and Catholics in eastern Yorkshire; the development of the Scarborough and Whitby missions; discussions on various points of doctrine; Irish political affairs; and the progress of Ushaw College.

Also includes extracts from reviews, church inscriptions, and miscellaneous papers.

About the creator

John Walker, Canon of St Peter's, Scarborough (1835-1873)

Provenance

Presented to Ushaw College by Rev E. Stephens, c.1930s. The papers (which included the Lingard Papers) were originally part of a bequest to Canon Billington who subsequently passed them to Stephens.

2f

UC/P9/2/8 24 December 1877

Letter from Thomas G. Law (London Oratory) to William Walker: he has been spending ten hours a day on the index; Bro Foley's lack of Latin knowledge is disrespectful to Challoner and will bring the Church into disrepute; the sale of 2,000 copies without receiving any royalties

2f

UC/P9/2/9 [?December 1877]

Letter from Thomas G. Law (London Oratory) to William Walker: cannot help on information of Lingard's time at Douai as he is busy indexing; Sander and the Tablet

2f

UC/P9/2/10 26 February 1878

Letter from Thomas G. Law (London Oratory) to William Walker: asking for his opinion on the Douai Diaries; praising him for dissuading Canon Toole from intervening in the Atheneum and SJ dispute; Wisbeach stirs and the cleverness of Jesuits who did not want Leo XIII to be pope; a sample of Foley's inaccuracy

2f

UC/P9/2/11 19 March 1878

Letter from Thomas G. Law (London Oratory) to William Walker: thanking him for his encouragement and he is glad that Walker is pleased with results so far, charge of two guineas and not a single copy remains for general sale, his lack of expectation of making any profit, review copies, and the policy on including the Latin original of documents; Estcourt helping on the bibliography of martyrs and finding a manuscript in Challoner's hand which includes martyrs under Henry VIII, the diaries of Valladolid, and Roman Agency on Stuart period &c; Verstegan to Parsons

4f

UC/P9/2/12 1 December 1855
